

For Immediate Release
12/07/06

Contact: Liz Walker
661.254.1815

Community Youth Orchestra Performs Free Concert

Sherman Oaks, CA ... Handmade Galleries is proud to present the renowned Kadima Conservatory's Jason Martinez & Friends in concert. These young, up and coming classical artists will be performing at Handmade Galleries in the heart of The Village at Sherman Oaks on Ventura Blvd. The free holiday concerts will serenade shoppers throughout the season on December 16th, 17th, 21st, 22nd, and 23rd from 2:00 - 4:00 pm.

Handmade Galleries is a light, airy boutique, bustling with the individual works of nationally recognized and local established artists. These artists feature handmade and manufactured pieces, handcrafted jewelry, unique collectibles, trendy new items and holiday gifts. The friendly, helpful staff provides a warm atmosphere and can advise you on the perfect decorating items for yourself, or that unique gift for someone special. In addition to the holiday items, trendsetting handbags and cutting edge housewares are currently among the hottest selling items. Fun baby clothes and accessories will be the hit of any shower. Recently remodeled, Handmade Galleries boasts gifts and collectibles in all price ranges for the holidays. Items from the gallery have been featured on DailyCandy.com and "The Gilmore Girls." The distinctive inventory evolves constantly, and these items are often be found at higher prices elsewhere.

The Kadima Conservatory of Music, Inc. is a small non-profit organization that funds scholarships and other programs in classical music training to disadvantaged students primarily in the San Fernando area. Kadima Conservatory of Music had been providing fully subsidized classical music training for hundreds of under privileged children. (reprinted from website: www.kadimaconservatory.com)

###

Information: Handmade Galleries

Handmade Galleries has been owned and operated by Andy Spyros since 1995. The entrepreneurial mom of two began her retail career in Chicago at the famed I Magnin department store. She then relocated to Los Angeles where she worked in law and launched the local Limited Express flagship locations in Downtown Los Angeles and Santa Monica. Ms. Spyros is a graduate of University of Michigan Business School, and now resides in the San Fernando Valley with her husband and two children.

Holiday hours now being observed at Handmade Galleries
November 24th–December 23rd
Monday–Saturday 10:00am – 9:00pm - Sundays 11:00am – 7:00pm
Open Christmas Eve 11:00am – 6:00pm. 818.382.3444
www.handmadegalleriesLA.com
14556 Ventura Blvd. (west of Van Nuys) Sherman Oaks, CA 91403

Information: Kadima Conservatory

Modeled after the European Conservatory tradition, the Kadima Conservatory was founded in 1985 by Beth Elliott in order to fill a void in the San Fernando Valley. Engaging the talents of local musicians and music educators, the Kadima Conservatory sought to provide a high level of musical training to students of all ages, ethnicities and socio-economic backgrounds, and to inspire them to have a lifelong love of music and learning. (reprinted from website: www.kadimaconservatory.com)

Kadima Conservatory of Music, Inc
14023 Chandler Blvd
Sherman Oaks, CA 91401
www.kadimaconservatory.com